

UCC NEWSLETTER JULY 2017

WELCOME BACK

Well hello and welcome to the club newsletter for July. It's nice to be back and the break was due to me not having any news given to me, however back by popular demand the letter is back so thank you to the two members for their request!

CRICKET NEWS

The 2nd XI are having a great season having only lost 2 league matches and are currently second in the league. We hope the success carries on especially after last season, well done gentlemen.

The 1st XI currently sit 4th in their league and promotion seems reliant on other team's results and of course the weather. A date for your diary, on Sunday 30th July the 1st XI plays New Farnley away in the semi final of the Priestley Cup. The match starts at 1.00 pm and all the best to them.

I would like to thank the cricket teams for their support of the club outside of their matches. A special thanks to Dean Skillicorn, our cricket chairman for what is so far a superb season and thank him for all his hard work and dedication, thank you one and all.

INDOOR GAMES NEWS

The new season starts in September with the Monday night league down to one division with UCC entering one team. The Tuesday night league will feature two teams from UCC.

ENTERTAINMENT NEWS

Members will hopefully be aware that the live jazz nights are now held every Wednesday from 9.00 pm. On Wednesday 16th July we have The Gelatos playing and then on Wednesday 23rd July appearing are Cherie Gears & Adam Cox.

On Wednesday 30th August UCC welcomes Gerry & The Hattricks, featuring Michaela Smith on vocals, a 16 piece big band; yes folks a 16 piece big band, not to be missed and certainly to be heard. On Saturday 2nd September we have Rocco And The Reverbs playing a mixture of 50's and 60's music.

The end of season cricket do will be on Saturday 16th September that will be a karaoke night no doubt featuring the golden tones of our cricket chairman Dean Skillicorn. Saturday 23rd September sees the welcome return of singer, comedian John Gillan. Please give your support to all these events.

OTHER NEWS

Finally hope you have noticed the bar top, front and floor have all been refurbished and I am sure you will agree what a super job Jim Emmett has done. The Committee tries to maintain high standards of maintenance for the members benefit.

UNTIL NEXT MONTH

Well that is all folks, hope this newsletter has been of interest and informative so until next month all the best.
